BDLive - The Rand extended its gains against the dollar on Tuesday, strengthening along with other emerging-market currencies, while the JSE recorded a positive start to February after Monday's gains.

The local currency touched an intraday best of R15.1987/$ after weakening R15.7 on Friday. World stocks looked to leave a volatile January in the past on Tuesday, starting a new month on firmer ground as a slew of reassuring comments from Federal Reserve officials helped calm rate-hike jitters.

A pan-European equity index opened more than 1% higher, US stock futures rallied and Japan's blue-chip Nikkei rose 0.3%, buoyed by Wall Street's overnight gains.

US stocks closed higher on Monday, led by a 3.5% rise for the tech-heavy Nasdaq which ended January on a strong note after narrowly avoiding its worst ever start to the year.

BDLive - Bengaluru — Gold prices were flat on Tuesday, as traders digested the US Federal Reserve's policy tightening plans, while looking forward to a slew of economic data and central bank meetings to decide their next move.

Spot gold was little changed at $1,797.64 an ounce by 4.40am GMT. US gold futures were up 0.1% at $1,797.60.

"Gold is basically motionless, there was a bit of a correction over the past 24 hours after three days of aggressive selling," DailyFX currency strategist Ilya Spivak said.

The US non-farm payroll data due later this week is important, as any signs of weak hiring and strong wage growth may embolden market expectations of a hawkish US Federal Reserve and in turn pressure gold to go lower, he said.
