BDLive - Tech-heavyweights Naspers and Prosus dragged the JSE lower, while global markets were weaker as the Russia-Ukraine conflict continued to put investors on edge.

Shares in Naspers dropped 8.03% to R2,057.22 — their biggest one-day drop since August 2021 — as renewed concerns about tighter tech regulations in China resulted in a sell-off affecting its largest asset, Tencent. US stock index futures rallied, the euro rose and global stocks steadied on Monday as a glimmer of hope emerged for the diplomatic solution to the Russia-Ukraine standoff.

US President Joe Biden and Russian President Vladimir Putin have agreed in principle to hold a summit on the Ukraine crisis. The Kremlin said there were no concrete plans in place for a summit, but that a call or meeting could be set up at any time. A summit would be held only if Russia did not first invade Ukraine, which Western countries have said it could do at any moment despite repeated denials. Russia extended military drills in Belarus due to end Sunday, and Western countries say it has continued to build up troops on the Ukraine border.

BDLive - Bengalaru — Gold eased after hitting a more than eight-month high on Monday, as a plan for the US and Russian presidents to hold a summit on the Ukraine crisis dented safe-haven demand, while looming Federal Reserve rate hikes further pressured the metal.

Spot gold fell 0.3% to $1,891.33 per ounce by 7.14am, retreating from a session peak of $1,908.02 — its highest since June 3. US gold futures were down 0.3% to $1,894.20. US President Joe Biden has accepted in principle a summit with Russia's Vladimir Putin over the Ukraine crisis, after the foreign ministers of the two countries meet next week and if an invasion has not occurred, the White House said on Sunday.

"Global investors are deeply concerned about the potential [conflict] between Russia and Ukraine, and the US president has been repetitively saying that an invasion is possible in the days to come," said Margaret Yang, a strategist at DailyFX.
